THE WORDS OF HAZRAT MIRZA GHULAM AHMAD^{AS}

The Promised Messiah & Imam Mahdi

PURPOSE OF JALSA SALANA

“The primary purpose of this Convention is to enable every sincere individual to personally experience religious benefits; they may enhance their knowledge and (due to their being blessed and enabled by Allah, the Exalted) their perception (of Allah) may progress. Among its secondary benefits is that this congregational meeting together will promote mutual introduction among all brothers, and it will strengthen the fraternal ties within this Community...”

NOT AN ORDINARY CONVENTION

The Ahmadiyya Muslim Community, under the leadership of its holy founder, Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad^{as}, held its first convention on December 27, 1891 in Qadian, India. Approximately 75 people attended the event. For over a century since then, the Community has held its Annual Convention, or Jalsa Salana, in numerous countries around the world. Tens of thousands of Community members gather at these conventions at various times throughout the year. The principle aims of the Annual Ahmadiyya Convention are to facilitate greater spiritual awareness among Community members, strengthen ties, and promote peace. Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad, emphasized the vital importance of the Annual Convention; “You must not rank this convention in the same league as other, ordinary, human assemblies.”

THE PROMISED MESSIAH AND MAHDI^{AS}

Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad (1835-1908)
Founder of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community

Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad^{as}, founder of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community, claimed to be the Promised Messiah and Mahdi whose advent was awaited under different names and titles by the adherents of various religions.

Under divine guidance, Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad^{as} made the revolutionary disclosure that there was to appear only one such Reformer, whose mission was to ultimately bring mankind into the fold of Islam. He declared that his advent would finally usher a golden era of one universal religion which man had dreamt of and yearned for. He divested Muslims of fanatical beliefs and practices by vigorously championing Islam's true and essential teachings. He also recognized the noble teachings of the great religious founders and explained how such teachings converged into the one true Islam.

HAZRAT MIRZA MASROOR AHMAD^{ABA}

The Fifth Khalifa of the Promised Messiah^{as},
Head of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community

Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad^{aba} is the fifth successor and great-grandson of the Promised Messiah, Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad^{as}. Prior to him being elected as Khalifa, he accumulated an impressive record of humanitarian service, including voluntary work in Africa as a secondary school principal for a number of years. The Khalifa is particularly dedicated to ensure that Islam is properly understood as a religion of peace throughout the world. Through his sermons, lectures, books and personal meetings, he has continually advocated for the worship of God Almighty, service to humanity, universal human rights, a just society and separation of religion and state.
